ADMINISTRATION OF CASE

The United States Bankruptcy Court will conduct a hearing on whether (1) to confirm the debtor(s) proposed bankruptcy plan, (2) dismiss this case, (3) convert this case under chapter 7, and/or (4) to enter other orders concerning the administration of this case. The hearing will take place on September 25, 2017 at 9:00 am at U.S. Bankruptcy Court, 515 Rusk, Room 600, 6th Floor, Houston, TX 77002-0000.

Attached to this notice is a copy of the statistical cover sheet submitted by the debtor(s) with their proposed plan. This cover sheet serves as a summary of the plan. A complete copy of the proposed plan is available from clerk of the Court or the Debtor(s) Attorney. The Court may consider the current plan or a modified plan at the confirmation hearing.

If you object to confirmation of the plan, you must file your objection at least seven days before the confirmation hearing and serve a copy of the objection on the debtor, the debtor(s) counsel, the Chapter 13 Trustee, and parties requesting notice.

If the plan is not confirmed, the Court may consider whether to dismiss this chapter 13 case due to unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. The Court may also consider whether the case should be converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Court may also consider whether to enter other orders that are appropriate for administration of this case.
